March will be the last month for the "Pizza Hut Book-It" program.

This Week:

Animated Literacy: We'll continue with the sound of "ou and ow" with "The Grouchy Owl and the Brown Mouse", and will learn the long "a" sound with "A Hare Named Abe". We'll spell mouse, house, clown, and ape.

Reading: The new vocabulary word is "for". We'll read the little booklet Tom Is Sick, and introduce naming words and story structure.

Math: We will study identifying and counting money.
