

Mrs. Young's Kindernews

April 21, 2008

Snack and Show'n Tell:

Monday: Evan H.

Tuesday: Happy Birthday, Ashton!

Wednesday: Happy Birthday, Quincie!

Thursday: Colton

Friday: Sarah

Next Monday: Chelbi

We have collected 4 packs of flower seeds and hopefully will get them planted this week. Our lima beans have not yet sprouted, but we are watching them with anxious eyes. Also, we will make a book to show all the things a seed needs to grow.

The end of the year is fast approaching and the kindergartners will be presenting a celebration of our learning. (Songs, poems, certificates) I had May 9th in mind as the date. I'd like to have it a bit earlier than usual to avoid the craziness of the last few days of school. Also, I would appreciate feedback as to this date and if you'd prefer to have this program first thing in the morning or at the end of the day.

This Week:

Animated Literacy: We'll study "Whirling Irving" for the "ur", "ir", and "er" sounds. We'll draw and spell girl, shirt, skirt, bird, perch, and turtle.

Reading: We'll review the words for, he, she, and has. Our new little book will be A Pup and a Cat. Other skills will include blending with the short vowel sounds.

Math: We continue learning to tell time to the hour.