

Mrs. Young's Kindernews

November 5, 2007

---

.....
Show and Tell:

Dates to Remember:

Monday: Happy Birthday, Chelbi!

Tuesday: Sarah

Wednesday: Zachary

Thursday: Tony

Friday: Happy Birthday, Carson!

Next Monday: Ashton

November 21-23: Thanksgiving
Break. NO SCHOOL.

December 6: Lancaster Music
Program - High School.

---

Now that the leaves are changing colors, we are ready to do a study of leaves. Please have your child bring in 3 leaves of different shapes and colors; the more colorful the better. If possible, try to avoid the dead brown leaves. If you happen to know the names of the tree from which the leaves came, please label them. Also, try to find a few other signs of fall from which we could make an Autumn Collage. Nuts, pinecones, dried flowers and plants all work well.

---

Thank you to Angie Kimmi and all the parents who made the Halloween party a success!!!

---

Please remember to fill out the "Reading Log" sheets after you have read to your child. You can also write down the titles of books he/she reads to you. After completing one page and returning it to me, your little one will get a certificate for a free monthly "Personal Pan Pizza" from Pizza Hut. This program ends in March.

---

This Week:

Animated Literacy Phonics Program: We'll continue working with Crazy Camel's "C" sound. Duck, truck, cap, and crab will be our words to spell, write and draw.

Reading: Read to class: The Chick and the Ducking. Little Book: I Am Sam!

Skills: Story details and the final "m" sound. Sight Word: Is

Math: Numbers to 10 and simple addition using manipulatives.

Science Focus: Turkeys

Social Studies: Discuss why it is important to save money.