

Good News from
Atchison County Community Primary School

Week of: September 28, 2009

From Mrs. Hall: Maci Behrens always does a nice neat job on all of her papers. She is always helpful in straightening up our classroom.

From Mrs. Lanter: Karson Worthington is always ready to learn. He shows respect and compassion to adults and his classmates. He always has a smile and is ready to help his friends. Keep up the fantastic attitude!

From Mrs. Young: Autumn Gann is an incredible listener and has such a positive attitude in everything she's asked to do.

From Mrs. Schwalm: Charlie Miller likes to help line up the students that ride his school bus. When we are all ready, Charlie lets me know that he is at the end of the line.

From Mrs. Stutesman: My class has returned all of their Library books on time for the 3rd week in a row.

From Ms Maas: The preschoolers are successfully learning their colors, shapes, numbers, and letters

From Mr. Hinrichs: This week I got to share applesauce with the first grade classes and a birthday cup cake in Mrs. Hall's class.
