

GOOD NEWS FROM ATCHISON COUNTY COMMUNITY PRIMARY SCHOOL

Week of: February 15, 2009

From Mrs. Hall: Joseph Anderson, Maci Behrnes, Lauren Hall, Allyson Peterson, and McKena VanVleck all had a 100% on their spelling test. Keep up the good work!

From Mrs. Lanter: Karson Worthington is always working very hard in kindergarten. He is busy writing his own sentences to share with the class. He does a fantastic job following directions ! Keep it up, Karson!!

From Mrs. Young: Alexis Harris adds a bright spot to the morning with her cheery “good-morning, Mrs. Young”. She works hard and I respect the way she’s ready and willing to do anything asked of her.

From Mrs. Piepe: Colton Dishong is so proud of his first grade handwriting! It is so good that he calls it second-grade handwriting! Great progress, Colton!

From Mrs. Schwalm: Trenton Beagle works hard to complete his assignments each day. He is careful to check over his work before handing it in to the teacher. Keep it up, Trenton!

From Mrs. Stutesman: Gunnar Koontz was the winner of the “Telling Time around the world” game this week. Great Job, Gunnar!!!!

From Ms Maas: Matthew Hansen listens carefully to identify the beginning and ending sounds in words. He has also learned that the letter R is a bossy letter and recognizes that in words. Way to go Matthew!! Keep up the great work.

From Mrs. Pound: Cooper Pound came up with the idea to have a coloring contest. Five preschoolers worked very hard to color their picture and we had a judge come in (Thank you Mary Kay), they all tied ;) Each child received a ribbon and a toy dinosaur for coloring their dinosaur picture. Great Job Preschool!

From Mr. Hinrichs: I enjoyed hearing about the Cub Scouts with the first grade boys.
