Merry Christmas

Helping Hands

Students at ACCJSHS are displaying the true meaning of Christmas. With an outpouring of generosity toward their fellow man, they have collected food, hats, gloves, and clothing. Overheard in the hallway, a teacher expressed “It is a true blessing to be surrounded by a group of young people with warm hearts, helping hands, and the willingness to help those in need”. If you would like to contribute to this wonderful cause, please send items to Mrs. Campbell’s room.

Christmas gift suggestions: To your enemy, forgiveness. To an opponent, tolerance. To a friend, your heart. To a customer, service. To all, charity. To every child, a good example. To yourself, respect

Sounds of the Season

Sound Masters have been crooning their tunes to several audiences this month. Audiences enjoying the entertainment were the guests at the Senior Citizen's Dinner, Vintage Park, Medicalodge, Project Concern, Dooley Center, Senior Village, and the Atchison Elementary School K-2. Rounding out the Christmas season, they have the vocal and band concert December 15, at 7:00pm.

Kansas Association of Youth Services (KAYS) have extended the Christmas spirit of the student body by collecting canned goods for Thanksgiving with a contest. Students donated cans in the name of a teacher. Each teacher then received a feather on a turkey. The teacher toting the most feathers received a pie in the face at lunch. The lucky winner was Mr. English! The KAYS group also arranged the Senior Citizens' Lunch on December 7 with delicious food, exceptional entertainment from the choir and band, and superb service from the cooks and club members! One can also see the KAYS "ring-a-inging" the bells for the Salvation Army!
