Atchison County FFA News:

On January 16th, members of the Atchison County FFA Chapter attended the 2006 Northeast District Agribusiness Management Career Development Event. The contest was held at the Holton High School. The event consisted of two 50 question written exams, which were completed in a two hour time period. The tests covered all aspects of business management and financial applications, including a problem solving section.

The A-Team consisting of Carl Schwarzer, Jill Corpstein, Megan Young, and Blaine Oswald brought home the 1st Place Team plaque overall. Three of the team members were ranked in the top ten individuals: Jill Corpstein, 1st place and receiving a gold medal; Carl Schwarzer, 4th place; and Blaine Oswald, 6th place. Their advisor is Mrs. Jeanie Wege.

On the same day, Atchison Co. FFA Members also competed in the NE District Public Speaking CDE. Jill Corpstein placed 5th in the Junior division and Kristin Kiehl brought home a bronze medal for 3rd place in the sophomore division. Other members competing were: Mary Schletzbaum, Stacey Rathert, Blaine Oswald, Matt Wilson, Jessica Taliaferro, and Elizabeth Thompson.
