ACCHS Competes at We the People...

Juniors in Mr. Lucas' College History class participated in We the People...The Citizen and the Constitution competition in Topeka on Monday February 2. Each member of the class becomes an expert in one of the six units in the text. Teams prepare and present an opening statement and then respond to questions from a panel of judges. The six units deal with broad Constitutional issues and students must combine knowledge of primary source texts with historical events and current issues. Teams from across the state competed including Blue Valley Northwest, Pleasant Ridge, Sabetha, St. Thomas Aquinas, Greeley County and Valley Heights. On the front row from the left are Julie Oliver, Sloane Elias, Rikki Taliaferro, Precious Dela Cruz, Hannah Boos, Rachael Kiehl, Steven Rathert, Brock Wagner and Josh Keimig. In the back from the left are, Mr. Lucas, Tyron Byrd, Cruz Bautista, Elizabeth Ford, Trevor Lutz, Alex Maxwell, Khrystyan Jamvold-Banks and Ryan Falk.
