Math Club Competes at Emporia State University and Washburn University

Seniors Alisha Wallisch, Cassie Thompson, Maura Sheeley and Jeni Bodenhausen wait for the next event at Washburn University.

Senior Jill Corpstein displays her blue ribbon from Washburn University.

Members of the ACCHS Math Club recently traveled to two separate mathematics competitions. On October 25th, they traveled to Emporia State University participating in algebra, geometry, and math scramble. Brett Tull scored in the top 50% in geometry and Kristen Kiehl scored in the top 50% in the algebra individual contest.

On November 14 math club members competed at Washburn University. Our top three scorers were Jill Corpstein, Greg White, and Kaci Ludwig.
